Dear tenants,

BELL CENTRE: MUST DO ACTIVITY

2

Here at BDS we can almost taste the springtime, we hope that you're looking forward to it as much as we are! Warmer weather brings many new outdoor activities and events, which we'll be keeping you up to date with as always! Do try and take advantage of the final month for outdoor winter sports... by next July you could be wishing you had spent just one more weekend skating or snowshoeing!

All the best,

THE BELL CENTRE: QUINTESSENTIAL MONTREAL

Here in Montreal, as you know it's practically the peak of hockey season, which lasts from October 7th 2010 to April 9th 2011. Have you visited the Bell Centre to witness the "Habs" fight for victory? The National Hockey League's Montreal Canadiens are 24-time winners of the Stanley Cup. Don't miss out on this exciting event, which has defined Canadian and Quebecois culture for years.

Did you know that the bell centre has housed the Montreal Canadiens hockey team since March 16th, 1996? However, construction of the centre started three years earlier, in 1993. The bell centre has a fantastic international reputation; it has repeatedly been viewed as one of the world's busiest arenas. On average, the bell centre receives the highest attendance of any arena in Canada.
